Dear Lori,

We would like to take time out to thank you, Bob and the rest of your staff for the excellent service you provided us. Over the past three years we have had several demanding situations. We turned to you for help and guidance and you certainly obliged us in a most satisfactory manner.

When a consulting group puts all their resources at the command of a customer, they create strong and lasting bonds between them. We would like to also thank you for your unstinting cooperation during critical situations and overwhelming time requirements that has helped members of my executive team and me in trying moments.

Lori, you continue to be a great asset to our company. We look forward to a continued mutually favorable relationship in years to come.

Sincerely,

Donald J. Goldberg
